On February 8, 2010, the undersigned dismissed this action, without prejudice, for plaintiff's failure to bring his case into proper form. The plaintiff then appealed that order which the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed on April 14, 2010 for the plaintiff's failure to prosecute.

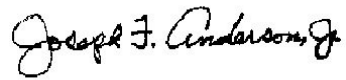

While his appeal was pending, the plaintiff filed a motion with this court requesting additional time to comply with the Magistrate Judge's proper form order. This court issued an order on March 24, 2010 advising the plaintiff that before it would consider reopening the case, the plaintiff must provide the court with a filed copy of his financial certificate, proof of service, and any documents the Magistrate Judge directed in his initial proper form order.

The plaintiff has been advised several times that his failure to comply with this court's orders and bring this case into proper form could result in the dismissal of his action pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Having had no response from the plaintiff in more than three weeks, it appears to the court that the plaintiff does not wish to reopen this action. Accordingly, the plaintiff's motion to reopen the case (doc. # 21) is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
